THE THAW EXPLOITATION COMPANY LIMITED.

When a scion of an enormously wealthy family gets into the clutches of the criminal law, the bar and the faculty, in the language of Wall street, "cut a watermelon." The lawyers and the doctors are reputed to have worked Harry K. Thaw to the tune of about $600,000 already, and they have filed claims against him for more than $400,000 in addition. Under the circumstances Thaw has concluded that, being in the asylum for the criminal insane, he is not getting much more than he has already paid for. Wherefore he schedules his property and petitions to be adjudicated a bankrupt. He is, however, in the happy condition of one who can part with all his assets and still be worth somewhere between half a million and a million, for he has an income from trust funds of $33,000 and his lawyers advise him that his creditors cannot touch that.

While Thaw was in danger of the electric chair the lawyers and doctors could, of course, get anything from him and his family that they demanded, and they must bitterly deplore their moderation in leaving the family in possession of anything. But Thaw has been snatched from the chair and yet is not free, so that he has nothing to fear and nothing to hope for from the two professions and he is quite excusable for refusing to pay any more bills that are not proved up before a register in bankruptcy.

The operation of getting money out of Thaw ought to have been taken over by a stock company, say, the Thaw Exploitation Company, Limited. Under capable management the whole Thaw fortune could have been acquired before the verdict of a jury put him beyond the reach of hope or fear. Matters should have been arranged so that there would be a third and perhaps even a fourth trial. The goose that has laid golden eggs for the doctors and the lawyers has not been killed; but what amounts to almost the same thing, he has been put beyond danger of being killed and he declines—we trust the confusion of genders will be pardoned—to lay a further assortment of golden eggs.—[Philadelphia Record.

ASLEEP UNDER WATER.

As showing how much at home a man may be today under water the following is an amusing story. Some months ago, while the great battleship Dreadnought was at Malta, one of the seamen divers went down to clear her propeller from some flotsam that had become entangled, and he failed to come up. It chanced that the rest of the battleship's divers were ashore, and grave concern was felt on the warship for the missing worker. Signals by telephone and lifeline were sent below, without avail. In the launch above the throb, throb of the air pump's cylinders went on, but the attendants looked at one another in dismay, fearing some strange tragedy deep down in those heaving green seas.

The worst was feared when some big bushes and other tools came floating to the surface, and thereupon the navigating lieutenant sent ashore an urgent message for one of the other divers. The man came on board, dressed immediately, and went below, only to come up full of indignation.

"Why, that fellow's been asleep all this time!" he said wrathfully. It was true. The man had just had his lunch, and finding the work much less serious than he had thought, he finished it in a few minutes and then sat comfortably on one of the giant blades of the Dreadnought's propeller and went to sleep, with inquisitive fishes swarming around him, attracted by the dazzling searchlight on his breast. The officers were so amused at the occurrence that no punishment was inflicted on the lazy one.

FIFTY YEARS IN A CONVENT.

A very impressive and unusual celebration took place at the Monte Maria Visitation Convent in Richmond this morning, when Mother Justin celebrated her golden jubilee as a religious. Right Rev. Augustine Van de Vyver, Bishop of Richmond, conducted the exercises, during which the venerable jubilarian renewed the vows she made fifty years ago. The jubilee sermon was preached by Rev. A. J. Van Ingelgen, missionary priest of the diocese. Mass was rendered by the choir nuns of the Visitation.

The pope has sent to the venerable jubilarian and to all the nuns of the community his special apostolic benediction.

Mother Justin was born in Baltimore, July 7, 1829. She was one of thirteen children, nine of whom are living. Her family name was Euphenia Provost.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING. AUG. 10, 1908.

A REPUBLICAN protectionist publication of the north in its issue of last week says:

From all over the land comes the good tidings that an unmistakable and abundant wave of prosperity is sweeping along. Mills are running full blast, crops are bumper everywhere, the railroads are taking on men, and the entire nation, with one accord, gives vent to the expression that prosperous seasons are at hand.

This is a silly attempt to deceive the unwary which will catch no sensible voter. Of course every sensible man hopes for a return of prosperous times, but one only has to read the daily papers to see that mills and factories are shutting down all over the country which is a sad refutation of such statements as that above. Concerning the business of the present time, Bradstreet's for Saturday says:

Retail stocks of goods are down to low points in the country at large. Replies to an inquiry by Bradstreet's from 100 cities and towns in the United States show that fully 75 per cent of the cities report smaller stocks of summer goods and 60 per cent. report smaller stocks of winter goods than were held a year ago at this date. Buying ability is reported to be impaired as compared with last year, nearly 70 per cent. of the replies showing lessened buying power reported by retailers. Collections also are backward, as 65 per cent. of the cities report payments at retail slower than a year ago.

THE nomination of Joseph L. Bristow in the republican primaries of Kansas last week for the seat in the Senate now occupied by Senator Long is almost universally credited to the influence of Senator La Follette, of Wisconsin. The fight began over two years ago, when Long was helping to block the La Follette programme in the senate. The Wisconsin man went into Kansas, and read Long's legislative record before the local Chautauqua associations. Bristow was the logical beneficiary of this influence, and he had besides the support of a brother editor, William Allen White. Bristow boldly declared from the stump that he would vote with any party to secure the reduced freight rates for Kansas, while Long said that he would be guided by the republican caucus.

THE commercial failures in the United States during July, as compiled by Dun's Review, were 1,232, with liabilities of $14,222,126, which is the fewest of any month in the past year except May. Still it is heavy compared with the corresponding month of last year, when the total of failures reached only 777. Manufacturering failures last month were 314, against 211 in July, 1907. There were 871 trading failures, against 531 such defaults in the same month of last year. These are not encouraging figures for the republicans, who tell people that prosperity will continue if they vote the republican ticket.

EVERY form of theatrical amusement and every kind of playhouse in the United States has been brought under a huge combination of interests by means of what is known as a "gentlemen's agreement," made at New York last week in the offices of Klaw & Erlanger. The ostensible object was to discuss the betterment of conditions and the harmonious co-operation, and a committee was appointed to draw up a plan. Even Belasco and Fiske were gobbled in this agreement through the presence of Lee Shubert. It is in effect a trust or organization of the managers, each to remain undisturbed in his present position.

ONE OF THE most diabolical deeds committed in a civilized country for a long time was that near Birmingham, Ala., early yesterday morning, when a party of strikers fired into a train, killing three men and maiming many others. Such acts are incomprehensible to well thinking people, and the perpetrators should be hunted down and punished to the full extent of the law, which, however, is hardly severe enough for such fiends. Justice demands that no stone should be left unturned by the Alabama authorities to bring these criminals to book.

THE employees of the International Paper Company, or trust, which operates mills in many place, were ordered out last week, as a protest against the reduction of the wages of some of the members of the union. Most of the 30,000 workmen responded, and the mills are idle. Officers of the trust said that they had an abundant supply of paper on hand with which to fill orders. These are the men who so violently oppose a reduction in the tariff of material used in the manufacture of paper.

THE SHOE manufacturers of Germany having resolved to combine in order to make head against the increasing importation of shoes from the United States the Philadelphia Record enquires what will they do when under democratic policy the American shoe manufacturers are put on equal ground with them by repeal of the duty on hides.

From Washington.

Washington, Aug. 10.

For the purpose of fighting the increased freight rates in southwestern territory, which went into effect today, Senator Culberson, Attorney General Pollard, and State Railroad Commissioner Mayfield, all of Texas, and Commissioner Love, of Oklahoma, today filed a voluminous complaint for submission to the Interstate Commerce Commission. The document names 63 railroads, and asks that after due investigation the roads be ordered to cancel the rates, that the shippers may be given reparation and damages and that any shipper affected by the proposed advances in rates be allowed to intervene as joint complainant.

Fully a year will elapse before the surgeons of the Marine Hospital and Public Health Service can be withdrawn with safety from their work of fighting the plague at San Francisco and other Pacific coast points, according to an opinion expressed today by Surgeon General Wyman. The disease is not now prevalent among the human inhabitants, but is still found among rats. The treacherous nature of the plague is cited by the surgeon general.

Col. Marion F. Maus today succeeded General Funston, as commander of the Department of California. It is expected that Col. Maus will soon be made a brigadier general. Gen. Funston will at once take command at Fort Leavenworth.

An indirect result of the world cruise of the Atlantic fleet is in the increase of recruits for the naval service. Last week, 473 new enlistments were announced, and the record for the past several months exceeds all previous records in the history of the department.

According to a dispatch received at the State Department, today, from William F. Doty, United States consul at Tabriz, Persia, the American flag flying over the consulate, at that place, was shot away yesterday by the loyalist forces and a man was wounded immediately in front of the consulate. Because of the brevity of this message the opinion is expressed at the department that the shooting down of the flag was an accident, the shot having been intended for the revolutionists.

The election of C. G. Bantz to be assistant treasurer in the place of the late Major J. F. Meline, in this city, was announced today. Bantz who has been deputy assistant treasurer, will be succeeded in that capacity by Wm. H. Gibson, at present cashier.

Secretary of War Wright, today, announced that he would render his final decision in the case of the eight cadets recently found guilty of hazing at West Point late this afternoon or tomorrow. It will take the form of a direction to the Superintendent of the Military Academy as to the final disposition to be made of the cases. The cadets are already under suspension with a recommendation that they should be dismissed hanging over their heads. The impression exists that this recommendation will be adopted at least in the case of the ringleaders, although leniency may be shown to some of the classmen.

The contract for furnishing 750,000 yards of cotton khaki for the American army was today divided between the two Philadelphia bidders at about 25c a yard.

TRAIN ATTACKED.

Three men were instantly killed and 11 injured, two of whom will probably die, when striking miners fired into a passenger train on the Birmingham Mineral Railroad at Blocton, Ala., yesterday morning, about 2 o'clock. The dead are: Conductor Joe T. Collins, O. Z Dent, deputy sheriff; Willard Howell, nonunion miner; the wounded include several officers of the coal company and employes of the road and deputy sheriffs.

The train was a special bearing nonunion men to the Blocton mines under guard of soldiers and deputies. On the outskirts of the town the engineer suddenly saw a log across the track, and at once a fusillade was fired into the train. The engineer did not stop, but let the cowcatcher throw the log from the track, and put on full speed. The place where the attack was made is in a cut, the ground being on a level with the lower part of the windows. The assailants behind the rocks above poured down a murderous fire directly into the windows and at the engineer. Practically every window in the train was broken, and shots struck all parts of the engine and cab. The train proceeded to Blocton, and the dead and injured returned to Birmingham. Eight negroes were arrested yesterday afternoon.

Joseph T. Collins, the conductor was a citizen of Washington. His mother resides at 1218 H. street northeast. He was a native of Frederick Md., being a son of the late Elijah Collins. He spent his early life in Alexandria, being educated in St. John's Academy.

His father was an engineer on the old Alexandria, Loudoun and Hampshire railroad and ran the locomotive Clarke.

Governor Comer held a hurried conference with Lieutenant Colonel Hubbard, commanding the militia, and another company was hurried to Blocton. All is reported quiet there tonight.

The trouble has caused widespread indignation, and a general demand is being made that more vigorous steps be taken looking to the preservation of order.

PARKER STOPS RUNAWAY.

Alton B. Parker, of New York, brought first aid yesterday afternoon in what was almost a fatal runaway.

While A. U. Mills, with his wife and daughter, of San Luis Obispo, Cal., and David Oliver, a school director of San Francisco, and the latter's daughter were riding in a surrey the horses became frightened at an automobile and ran away.

The surrey was overturned and Mr. Oliver and daughter and Miss Mills were caught underneath. Mr. and Mrs. Mills were thrown clear of the tangle and Mr. Mills grabbed the reins. After the surrey has been dragged a hundred yards with its pinioned captives Mills party checked the runaway team.

Just then Mr. Parker and Delancey Nicoll, of New York, whirled up the road in an automobile. Almost before the machine was stopped Mr. Parker leaped from the tonneau and seized the horses' bits. The animals were brought to a standstill and the three bruised occupants of the wrecked surrey were liberated.

All were put in Mr. Parker's automobile and taken to the Mills home.

Fort, an octoroon girl, during a jealous rage. Bergen, of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, officiated. Many politicans hereabouts says the Richmond Journal are of the opinion that the so-called democratic "organization" of the State is about to withdraw the support of the machine from Judge William Hodges Mann, of Nottoway county, and attempt to elect Harry St. George Tucker to the governorship of Virginia in the election next year.

Pointing out the man and emphatically branding him as her assailant last Tuesday morning, Mrs. Albert Powell, the elderly lady who was struck down by a negro in her Prentis Park home early last week, faced William King, a negro in the Norfolk county jail, yesterday, and told Justice Peed that King was without a doubt the man who attacked her.

D. Lawrance Groner, a prominent republican of the Norfolk district, whose name has been mentioned in connection with the congressional nomination, declared yesterday that in the event that National Committeeman Alvah H. Martin persists in refusing the republican nomination for Congress from that district, it is not improbable that the republican convention, to be held August 20, will name a "Taft democrat" to oppose the democratic nominee.

A warrant charging him with an attempt to criminally assault a woman patient on July 28, was served at Roanoke yesterday on W. S. Gregory, a prominent Roanoke dentist. Coulter, president of the National Business College, of Roanoke, and Lee Keedick, of New York, a manager of lecturers, they went to Gregory's office and thrashed him.

Cronberg, Germany, Aug. 10.—Everything is in readiness for the meeting of Emperor William and King Edward. The kaiser arrived here at noon today and the king will stop off for the day on his way to Marienbad, where he goes to take the baths to reduce his weight. Great political significance, it is expected, will attach to this meeting. While the ties of blood are strong between the two, the bitterest political differences exist between them. The monarchs will spend the day at Friedrichshof Castle, the guests of the kaiser's youngest sister, Princess Frederic Charles of Hesse.

The Woman Tempted Him.

Hurlock, Md., Aug. 10—"The woman tempted me. But I am innocent." That is the defense of the Rev. Stephen B. Shipman, pastor of Washington M. E. Church who was beaten almost unconscious by Thomas Carew when he found the preacher and his wife together in a room at night. Following is the story he will tell when Carew sues for divorce and when he sues Carew for damages for assault:

"I went to the home of Nathen Todd, Mrs. Carew's father" says the preacher, "about eight o'clock in the evening and when I retired was given a room usually occupied by Carew.

"After I had fallen asleep, I was aroused by a hand on my face and was surprised to find Mr. Carew's wife sitting on the side of my bed. I at once protested and insisted on her leaving the room. She said: 'Oh, won't you love me. Wont you pray for me?'

"I insisted quietly that she go to avoid making a scene and started to leave the bed. She arose and in leaving the room ran into the arms of her husband, who had lit a match which was extinguished in the scuffle.

"In the meantime, I was putting on my clothes. I said 'I will leave as soon as I can get my clothes on.' He said 'No, you will go now, without any clothes,' and commenced tearing the clothes I had on. Grabbing my shoes and a small grip I started for the door when he attacked me, grabbed my throat and nearly choked me to death. Finally, I fled by the front door. He followed with a large club, the while beating me most unmercifully. His wife and mother followed screaming to him not to kill me.

For a quarter of a mile he kept this up till we reached the home of a neighboring doctor. I looked as if I had been butchered and the clothing I had on was torn to shreds After I had been attended to and put to bed in Dr. Windsor's house, Walt Carew, a brother of Thomas Carew, came and told me he was afraid the man would return and kill me. He took me across a ditch and into a cornfield where I remained tormented by mosquitoes till morning.

Tom Carew's version of the affair is that the preacher was seen by him from outside the house first to go into Mrs. Carew's room after which she came to the room where the minister slept and was there fifteen minutes befor the struggle began.

Sentiment among the members of Shipmen's charge here is strongly with the pastor.

Tortured Wife and Child.

Lisbon, Aug. 10.—For torturing his beautiful young wife, until she went insane, and so mistreating his infant child that it is feared the little one cannot live, Count Margalho, of the Portuguese nobility, has been banished in disgrace from King Manuel's court, and deprived of the high office he held under the late King Carlos. The count married a rich Lisbon banker's daughter three years ago, and for a time seemed to live happily with her. Two years later, however, the wife and child disappeared and Margalho never gave a satisfactory answer as to their whereabouts. The police were finally led to investigate. Detectives paid a surprise visit to the count's home and, breaking down the doors, found the countess chained in an attic, her features distorted by suffering, her hair white and her form emaciated. The child, in even worse plight than its mother, lay on a pile of rags in a semi-stupor from neglect, illness and hunger.

The countess's mind was so completely wrecked that she could give no account of her imprisonment. The servants confessed, however, that mother and child had been held prisoners in the attic during the entire year, fed only on bread and water. The count asserted in his own defense that he believed his wife had accepted attentions from a naval officer whose name he refused to give. He finally admitted that he had no more than suspicions on which to base his accusations. King Manuel and Queen Amelia, who were to have visited the count's estate at the expiration of their period of mourning, immediately cancelled the engagement, and ordered Marghalo never to come into their presence again.

Woman Loses $15,000 Crop in Whist Game.

Los Angeles, Aug. 10.—With a fruit crop worth $15,000 as the stake, the fiercest game of whist ever seen in the southwest was played Saturday night in a little summer cottage at Corona del Mar, near Belbos Beach. The players were Mrs. George E. Hart, a Los Angeles society woman, and her husband, a prominent broker, on one side, and George A. Nelson and Hugh W. Nelson, Nevada mining men, on the other. The game was the outcome of a real estate deal, the Nelsons trading the whole town of Winchester, Riverside county, for the Hart ranch in Simi valley, north of this city. Both parties insisted on having this year's valuable crop from the ranch. The Harts had leads and leads and American and international whist signals at their fingers' ends, but the Nevada men had the trumps. In spite of brilliant and bewildering playing by the Harts, the rough and ready cowpuncher luck won. Mrs. Hart lost without a wince. The Harts led the first thirty-five points, though it was close, and then their rivals jumped ahead and stayed there.

The Illinois Primaries.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—Charles S. Deneen's victory over Richard Yates for the republican nomination for governor was made certain today by complete returns from 88 out of 102 counties in the state giving him a majority of more than 12,000 votes.

The result of the primary is a "dog fall" for the three leading candidates in the republican senatorial race—Senator A. J. Hopkins, Congressman George E. Foss, and former Senator William E. Mason.

There is every probability, according to experts, that the republican caucus at Springfield next January, will face a bitter dead-lock on the senatorship. Complete returns show that all the present republican congressmen in Illinois are renominated.

The new primary law seems not to have added greatly to its popularity since its trial throughout the state Saturday. It is hinted today in both democratic and republican circles that the law is to be attacked and that before another primary day it may be wiped off the statute books.

Mr. Bryan.

Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 10—With notification day but two days off, the advance guard of visitors is arriving in Lincoln today along with it being most of the members of the committee on notification. This is a very busy day at the Bryan home as most of the visitors are calling to pay their respects. Down town the work of decorating the streets is well underway.

Many democratic clubs from Nebraska and adjacent states, will be on hand. The committee is preparing to entertain the largest crowd in the history of the capital. Among the first to call on Mr. Bryan, this morning, was Congressman Henry D. Clayton, of Alabama, who was permanent chairman of the Denver Convention and by reason of that fact, is chairman of the committee on notification.

Bryan today completed his speech on the tariff which he will deliver in Des Moines, August 21. It is much longer than his notification speech. He will at once take up the preparation of his speech on the trusts, which he will deliver in Indianapolis, on August 25, at the time of the notification of John W. Kern.

Mr. Taft.

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Aug. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Taft left here at 9.20 o'clock this morning for Hot Springs. A good sized crowd was at the station to see them off, and cheered heartily.

Hot Springs, Va., Aug. 10.—Mr. Taft and his party arrived here at 10:20 o'clock. On the same train with the candidate came Charles W. Swisher, the regular republican nominee for governor of West Virginia. George McIntosh, representating Arnold C. Shern, the other republican candidate, will be here this afternoon. Representatives of both sides will remain here until National Chairman Hitchcock arrives on Wednesday and then they will try to get him to commit himself as to which State ticket will get the support of the national committee.

Senator Stephen B. Elkins and Senator Scott arrived here today to join in the confab. Mr. Elkins said he had come to try to persuade the national committee to work in West Virginia with and for the Swisher wing, which in the senator's opinion is the regular republican party.

Fighting for Work.

Camden N. J., Aug. 10.—In answer to the announcement of the Campbell Preserving Company that their plant would start in operation this morning, thousands of men stood in line since dawn hoping to secure one of the 450 positions nearly all nationalities were represented, and they speedily seperated themselves into groups. The Americans soon complained that they were hiring the foreigners in preference to themselves and attacked the latter trying to force them back. Knives, revolvers, clubs, and stones were used in the riot which followed, some the men entering a lumber yard near by, securing pieces of wood which they wielded in a lively fashion. The police hurried to the scene, Officer George Mercy was attacked and rendered almost helpless. Other officers came to his aid in the nick of time. Several arrests were made and one man clubbed, although it is believed he will recover. The Campbell Company claimed it was not giving preference to the foreigners.

Cardinal Gibbons.

Rome, Aug. 10.—Cardinal Gibbons suffered a slight relapse today, due to exertion in attending an audience granted by the pope Saturday, yesterday's services at the vatican in celebration of the Pope's fifth papal anniversary and the congregation. As a result of today's relapse, which the cardinal's physicians say is not serious, the Cardinal may have to cancel all his plans and remove to the country for complete rest. The physicians have ordered the cardinal to refrain from all unnecessary exertion and to leave Rome as soon as he is able to travel to some country retreat.

The cardinal's trouble was diagnosed as intestinal, resulting from climatic and dietary changes. The cardinal was brought back to his apartments in Rome and within a few hours was resting comfortably though he had a high fever. There would be no alarm felt over the cardinal's present trouble, were it not for his extreme age, 74 years.

Fight Over a Girl.

New York Aug. 10.—One man is dead and another dying in St. Joseph hospital today after a battle for possession of a girl at Inwood, near Far Rockaway, in which several persons were wounded. All the participants in the affray were Italians, but the girl was an American girl. She has disappeared. The murdered man is Josefo Ponteleon, and the dying one, Ferdinado Maszco. The two with friends who aided them to hold the girl rallied to the fray when a band of thugs invaded the hamlet and and after a desperate struggle, were worsted. Constable Wm. Belcher, who attempted to interfere, had his clothing riddled with bullets but escaped unhurt.

The Mine Trouble.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 10.—The death of three men and the wounding of nearly a score more in yesterday's attack by armed strikers on a Louisville & Nashville train today drew from Governor Comer an order to increase the force of troops in the Blocton district to 1,000 men. Martial law is likely to be proclaimed throughout the whole territory after affected by the strike before nightfall.

Hemmed in by forest fires, the engineer speeded the train to the utmost and for seven miles dashed through a burning waste. Not one of the 125 passengers was injured, however. The forest fires have destroyed many villages and the loss of life is heavy.

Harry Thaw was today examined at Poughkeepsie in supplementary proceeding brought by Mrs. Peter B. Hayt, a judgment debtor of Dr. John P. Wilson one of Thaw's experts, who is suing the prisoner for $600 for services. Mrs. Hayt has a judgement of $700 against the doctor. A rumor that Sultan Adout Hamid, grown tired of the insatiate demands of young Turks, intends to flee the country, is being generally credited in diplomatic and official circles in Constantinople. The sultan is convinced that he will never be able to meet all the demands of the young Turks and that his inevitable failure to do so, will eventually lead to his overthrow and plunge the county in war.

Because of the strain upon his eyes during two years confinement Harry Thaw was today fitted out with glasses. He was allowed to go to the office of an oculist in Poughkeepsie.

NORFOLK POLL-TAX CASE.

Judge Cardwell, of the Court of Appeals, on Saturday granted a writ of error in the Norfolk poll-tax case, recently decided by Judge Martin, who held that only those persons who presented their bodies at the office of the treasurer when they paid their poll-taxes are qualified voters, except in the case of war veterans, who did not have to pay taxes as a prerequisite to enfranchisement at the polls.

The action on Saturday means that the court, or one member thereof, perchance, has found enough in the contentions of the interveners to justify a review of the lower court's decision.

The case comes up anew before the Supreme Court at its September term in Staunton for that tribunal to now decide the question once for all as to what is meant by the word "personally" in that section of the constitution providing for the payment of poll-taxes for enfranchisement at the polls.

The decision of the lower court, if sustained, will, it is said, deprive 50 per cent of the people of the State of their votes, as the bulk have paid by checks or messengers. The new constitution requires that a voter shall "personally" pay, and the action was brought to have this interpreted.

At a democratic caucus in Cleveland, O., today the democratic majority of the city council approved the proposition to allow the municipal traction company to charge a five cent fare until the present debt is overcome.

HELD FOR GRAND JURY.

Richard McGuire and Clarence Anderson, both colored, were before Justice Caton this morning charged with holding up and robbing a colored man named Sibley Johnson at the upper end of King street one night last week. It seems that Johnson left Washington on the 9:15 electric train and alighted at Braddock Heights, where he expected to meet his father who had moved in that vicinity. Failing to meet him, he started down the road to this city. When he had passed the overhead bridge at the upper end of King street he was hailed by the two negroes named above whom he positively identified as the ones who robbed him of $17.85. He said he chased them until he was stopped by a barbed wire fence. He came to this city and reported the matter to the officers. McGuire and Anderson are believed to be the men who are in part responsible for the hold up in Alexandria county. In fact one of them is recognized by Mr. David Pettit, who was robbed recently.

THE CHURCHES.

The weather yesterday morning was threatening and the congregations at the several churches, as a rule, were slim. The rain kept many of the older people at home, while the circus, which had arrived in the city early in the morning, had more attractions than had the churches for the younger generation. The evening services were better attended. The services at Christ Church were conducted in the morning by Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis, of the Episcopal Theological Seminary. At the Second Presbyterian Church the pulpit was occupied morning and evening by Rev. W. H. T. Squiers. At St. Paul's Church Rev. R. L. Combs preached in the morning Rev. W. C. P. Coe conducted services and preached at the M. E. Church South. A large congregation last night listened to an able sermon at the First Baptist Church by Rev. W. E. Watson, entitled "The Kind of Sinner Jesus Saves." The other services were conducted by the resident clergy.

THE BALLOON.

At Fort Myer Saturday evening Captain Thomas P. Baldwin's dirigible balloon sailed a distance of six miles at the rate of twelve miles an hour and was virtually accepted by government engineers for use in the United States army signal corps. No effort was made to speed, and Engineer Curtis did not open up the throttle as far as on Friday. Mr. Curtis, who designed the motor which is used in the Baldwin airship, left for Hammondsport, N. Y., Saturday night to have a carbureter made for his engine, one for each cylinder. He was not satisfied with the result obtained from the one carbureter which has been used and for this reason the official trial was postponed until this evening.

DISMISSED THE CHARGE.

Ashby Gorham, who conducts a saloon at the corner of Duke and Fayette streets, was before the police court this morning on the charge of selling liquor to the eighteen-year-old son of Mrs. McMenamin. About a dozen witnesses were examined and the evidence went to prove that the young man had represented himself as being 21 on more than one occasion. The proprietor was not present when the drinks were served. The accused was represented by Mr. Robinson Moncure. Justice Caton dismissed the case but warned the proprietor if the same thing occurred again he would be prosecuted, as he was now fully aware of the age of the boy.

TROUBLE IN A BOARDING HOUSE

A boarding house keeper by the name of Maupin was before the police court this morning complaining against a man named Rollins for drunkenness and abusive language. She said he was all right when sober but a tartar when drunk. When arrested by Officers Sampson and Henderson he refused to put on his shoes and was escorted through the streets barefooted. Having sobered up and being apparently sorry for his conduct Justice Caton, thinking he had received sufficient punishment, allowed him to go.

BOY PROBABLY DROWNED.

Report was made yesterday by Leoman Ledman, of Quantico, of the drowning at 3 o'clock that morning of Perry Colbert, twelve years old, of Hoadley postoffice, Prince William county. The boy was drowned from the steamer River Queen at Possum Nose, about 25 miles from this city. When the steamer arrived in Washington, police of the harbor precinct interviewed Capt. Cook, who stated that his boat was chartered Saturday by a number of country people for a visit to lower river points. The boy, he said, was missed while persons were leaving at Possum Nose. The supposition is that he was drowned.

Officers Beach has recovered the watch recently stolen from Mr. David Pettit, which was sold in this city.

ROBINSON'S SHOW.

After a most successful trip through the Valley of Virginia, John Robinson's big circus and menagerie arrived here at an early hour yesterday morning and in a short time the employees began the word of pitching the mammoth tents on the old fair ground and making arrangements for the entertainment which began this evening and will conclude with a grand exhibition tonight.

Each season for many years has found the management of the John Robinson big circus introducing some new andf costly feature to their already magnificent parade.

The parade, which is a feature of Mr. Robinson's show, has gained the envy of all his competitors because of the number of magnificent open dens of wild animals with which it is enriched, and his long and varied experience will be a potent factor in the development of this infant enterprise. This entire collection involving the expenditure of nearly a half million dollars in securing them, was seen with the big show today. The parade this morning was a most attractive one and was witnessed by thousands of people who crowded the streets. The entertainment this evening was pronounced fine by all who attended but the big show will be tonight.

AMUSEMENTS.

As will be noticed by advertisements on this page there will be good shows at the moving picture houses tonight. That beautiful of all pieces "East Lynne" will be at the Alexandria Amusement Co.

At the Opera House the greatest acrobatic show ever witnessed will be on and the company will repeat by request the "Pioneers Crossing the Plains." Entire change at both houses.

REMAINS FORWARDED.

The remains of William Kirby, who died Saturday at Staunton, Va., were brought here yesterday to Demaine's undertaking establishment. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Groverton Chapel, near Woodlawn, Fairfax county, and the interment was at Woodlawn. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. A. Wallis, of the Theological Seminary.

FUNERAL OF MR. HOY.

The funeral of the late Hubert Hoy, who died Saturday afternoon, will take place tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Glassblowers' Association will attend in a body. Rev. W. W. Van Arsdale will conduct the services.

FRIED CHICKENS at THE ELKTON tonight.

$2.50, $3, and $3.50 Ladies' Shoes, in black and tan, low and high cuts mostly small sizes, offered for a few day only at 79 cents. J. A. Marshall & Bro.

EXCLUDED FROM COMPETITION.

The Alexandria yachtmen, who recently forwarded a letter to the secretary of the Corinthian Boat Club, Washington, proposing to compete in the power-boat races to be held Tuesday next under the auspices of that club, are in receipt of a letter excluding them from the competition, owing to the fact that the boats entered for the contest are of an entirely different type from those owned by the Alexandrians. They were informed that it was a race under the auspices of the Royal Arcanum of Washington and prefer no other entries. It is said, however, that the Alexandria boats will be in the river and that a contest is liable to take place between them. The new boat belonging to Mr. Victor Emerson was on trial yesterday and developed about 16 miles an hour. With a change in the wheel, which the owner intended to make, it is expected it will do better.

ACCUSED OF ROBBERY.

Mrs. Henry N. Parrish, the wife of a railway conductor, whose home is in Alexandria county, a short distance north of this city, yesterday afternoon notified Constable Cornell that a gold watch, a razor, $8.50, and a lot of clothing had been stolen from her home. Lieutenant Bettis, of the Alexandria police, last night arrested Lizzie Banks, a 16-year-old colored girl, who had been employed at the Parrish home. The police say they found all the property in the girl's possession. She was found in a house on south Columbus street.

A HORRIBLE CROSSING.

The street at the intersection of Fayette and Duke streets is in a horrible condition and the holes are so deep that even in the drouth previous to the recent rains they were constantly filled with mud and water. The neighbors have complained to the authorities but there seems to be no determination to improve conditions.

QUIET WEDDING.

Miss Katherine Travers, daughter of Mr. Alonzo H. Travers, and Mr. Edwin H. Ingersoll, of Washington, were married at St. Mary's Church this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Ingersoll have gone to Atlantic City on their wedding tour.

PERSONAL.

Mr. E. C. Tesh and children have returned home after a pleasant visit to Mr. Tesh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Tesh, of Davidson county, N. C.

Mr. J. M. Monroe, jr., and sister, Miss Marie, have returned from a 10 days outing at Colonial Beach.

Miss Blanche Howdershell, for several years past ticket agent for the electric railway company, at King and Columbus streets, has resigned. She will shortly leave for her home in Fauquier county.

Mrs. Henry Daingerfield, of Baltimore, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Barbour Daingerfield, formerly Miss Alice Rasin, have joined the latter's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. A. Hugh Bennett, of Philadelphia, at Capon for the remainder of the season.

Mrs. Laura Preston has returned after a visit to her brother, Mr. R. L. Wood, in Fredericksburg.

Mrs. Charles C. Carlin and sons, Keith and Charles, are at The Plains for August. Miss Henderson, of Alexandria, accompanied Mrs. Carlin.

Miss Mary Hellmuth is the guest of Miss Maria Blundon, at Riverdale.

A letter from Capon says: A popular family party from Alexandria includes Capt. Herbert Bryant and his attractive daughters, Miss Bryant, and Mrs. Thos. Fitzpatrick, with the latter's two little children.

Mr. Albert McCuen is visiting at Edge Hill, King George county, for a week.

Mr. Henry Schnell and family will today leave for Delaware Breakwater to join the families of Messrs. Joseph Ramsay and Arthur Wells in a fishing party there.

After 35 years of continuous service in the Alexandria Fire Department as driver of No. 4, Mr. Henry Posey, the veteran of this service, is still as active as when a boy of 19. He is now spending his vacation at the Dyke, Fairfax county.

Mr. Frank M. Hill and a party of friends left this evening on the schooner Ella Hill, for the lower river.

Mr. John Lowlow, of Robinson's circus called at this office today to renew old acquaintanceship. Mr. Lowlow is a southerner and is known and esteemed by people throughout the south who for years considered no circus worth seeing unless John Lowlow was in the ring. He has retired from the ring, however, but gives his active services and attention in managing the big show and assisting in making it what it is. Time deals gently with Mr. Lowlow as his many friends here will observe when they see him at the circus.

Mr. Charles I. Sims has sold his home at Glenn Carlyn and will move to Fort Myer Heights where he will build.

Mr. Thomas Ballenger continues seriously ill at his home on St. Asaph street.

The condition of Mr. Lewis Kemper, who was operated on at the Alexandria Hospital on Saturday, is regarded as favorable.

Capt. W. H. Sweeney has gone to Upperville to spend a few weeks.

Mrs. Lucy Levy and Miss Ada Levy, of Berryville, are visiting at the residence of Mrs. John L. Smith.

Miss Marjorie Ramey, of this city, has concluded a very successful engagement with the Aborn Opera Company, at the National Theatre in Washington, and it is understood will become a member of the DeWolf Hopper Company the coming season.

SHOOTER'S HILL PURCHASED AND PAID FOR.

Treasurer C. C. Leadbeater and Attorney Gardner L. Boothe of the Washington Monument Association today completed the purchase of Shooter's Hill from the Dulaney estate, and paid to Burke & Herbert in cash over $20,500. The deed has been forwarded to Fairfax for record.

Secretary Wedderburn has been busy today in the association's office, 106 south Fairfax street, closing sales for additional lots, and closed sales for 32 more lots to the first 31 purchasers before 2 30 p. m.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A number of hard crabs were seen in Blackberry Cove, below this city, yesterday. Quite a number have been caught around the wharves in this city.

The District of Columbia volunteers, who have been in camp at Forts Hunt and Washington, broke camp and returned to Washington yesterday.

Mr. B. Wheatley, undertaker, has charge of the burial of a young child of Mr. Harry Cleveland, which died at Ballston this morning.

A government wagon, in charge of a number of soldiers from Fort Hunt, conveying the District of Columbus militia baggage from the fort to Washington, ran into a northbound electric train at 9:30 o'clock Saturday night at King and Columbus streets. The fender of the car was considerably damaged. The vehicle escaped injury.

The Washington police are looking for a Mrs. R. E. Robinson, who was last seen Saturday evening at Fourteenth and R streets northwest, in that city. According to the story told by the woman's husband last evening, they came here from Pittsburg several weeks ago and started out in search of suitable apartments Saturday. It is believed that these are the people who had trouble about the board bill in this city last week.

MONDAY EVENING, AUG. 10, 1908

Flinty Plant Covers.

When Sir Humphry Davy was a boy about sixteen, a little girl came to him in great excitement:

"Humphry, do tell me my these two pieces of cane make a tiny spark of light when I rub them together?"

Humphry was a studious boy, who spent hours in thinking out scientific problems. He patted the child's curly head and said:

"I do not know, dear. Let us see if they really do make a light, and then we will try to find out why."

Humphry soon found that the little girl was right. The pieces of cane if rubbed together quickly did give a tiny light. Then he set to work to find out the reason, and after some time, thanks to the observing powers of his little friend and his own kindness to her in not impatiently telling her not to "worry," as so many might have done, Humphry Davy made the first of his interesting discoveries. Every reed, cane and grass has an outer skin of flinty stuff, which protects the inside from insects and also helps the frail looking leaves to stand upright.

Table Manners in Old France.

Could we restore for half an hour the dinner table of old France and obtain half a dozen instantaneous photographs of a royal banquet at any era between the reigns of Francis I and Louis Quatorze such a "cataract of laughter" would be heard as might disturb the serenity of Louis in paradise. The duchess, her napkin tied securely round her neck, would be seen mumbling a bone, the noble marquis surreptitiously scratching himself, the belle marquise, withdrawing her spoon from her lips to help a neighbor to sauce with it, another fair creature scouring her plate with her bread, a gallant courtier using his doublet or the tablecloth as a towel for his fingers and two footmen holding a yard of damask under a lady's chin while she emptied her goblet at a draft. During a feast of inordinate length it was sometimes necessary to substitute a clean cloth for the one which the carelessness or bad manners of the guests had reduced to a deplorable condition. —"An Idler In Old France."

The Midget Snakes.

"I see by your paper," says a correspondent, "that you want to find a man who can tell a snake story with the sound of originality to it. Here it is: Nearly forty years ago in the woods of Indiana I captured three snakes, each less than three and one-fourth inches in length, a combined length of less than ten inches, a little longer and a little larger in the middle than an old fashioned wool darning needle. Although these snakes were so small they would crawl around with their heads up and dart out their tongues like larger snakes, I put these reptiles in an eight ounce bottle, and they had plenty of room to crawl around on the bottom of it without crowding. These were not the kind of snakes generally seen in bottles, but genuine snakes. Among those who saw them was a minister of the gospel, and he had not been taking anything to make him see snakes either."—Emporia Gazette.

The Pirates.

The Chicago News fails to name the hero of this story, but has it that the visitor to the home of a well known Hoosier State author found his three youngsters romping in the hallway.

"What are you playing, boys?" he inquired.

"We are playing pirates," elucidated the smallest.

"Pirates? Why, how can you play pirates in Indiana? There are no seas bordering on this state."

"Oh, we don't need any seas. We are literary pirates, like pa."

And five minutes later a chorus of yells from behind the barn told that the hand that wields the pen can also wield the shingle.

Outside of His Practice.

"All that is the matter with you, sir," said the eminent physician after a thorough examination, "is lack of nutrition. You don't eat enough."

"I eat all I can hold, doctor," said the attenuated caller.

"Then you need to have your capacity enlarged, and that's a case for a surgeon. Five dollars, please. Good morning."—Chicago Tribune.

Overstudy.

Books are pleasant, but if by being overstudious we impair our health and spoil our good humor, two of the best pieces we have, let us give it over. I, for my part, am one of those who think that no fruit derived from them can recompense so great a loss.—Montaigne.

She Was Safe.

Little four-year-old Mabel was running downhill, holding her dress tightly.

"Be careful," called her mother, "or you will fall."

"Oh, no, I won't," replied Mabel, "'cause I'm holding tight to myself."

Not What He Meant.

Physician—Have you any aches or pains this morning? Patient—Yes, doctor; it hurts me to breathe—in fact, the only trouble now seems to be with my breath, Physician—All right. I'll give you something that will soon stop that!

Forbearance.

Bacon—Did you ever have any desire to go on the stage? Egbert—Oh, yes; only last week I did. Oh, the actor was vile! But I contented myself with shying an egg at him.—Yonkers Statesman.

I never listen to calumnies, because if they are untrue I run the risk of being deceived and if they are true of hating people not worth thinking about. —Montesquieu.
